

2018 Sacred Traditions Summer Camp

Join Great Promise for American Indians and the Austin ISD office of the American Indian Education Program at the 4th Annual Summer Camp on Native American Culture.

*The camp is FREE of cost to families and all ages are welcome.

*Snacks and lunch (Indian Tacos) are provided.

Date and location:

Sunday, June 3rd from 10:00am – 4:00pm in Southwest Austin.

The address is:

11036 Arroyo Canyon Drive
Austin, TX 78736

Activities:

Kayaking and fishing on Barton Creek, swimming, crafting, archery, drumming, Traditional Dance Class, Traditional Cooking Class to make Indian Tacos

Cost: FREE

What to bring: Wear comfortable clothing, bring bathing suit and towel if you want to swim

To sign up, please fill out the following page and return it to Jessica Scott, the Great Promise for American Indians Education Coordinator. Please do not hesitate to contact Jessica at 202-441-3197 or jnotts4@hotmail.com with any questions.

2018 Sacred Traditions Summer Camp Sign Up Sheet

Family Member Name (first and last)	Age	Allergies, dietary requirements, medical conditions

Parent Phone Number(s):

Parent Email Address:

Mailing Address:

Name of Child's School and School District:

Emergency Contact Names and Phone Number:

Tribal affiliation (optional):

Please fill out and email this form to jnotts4@hotmail.com or mail it to the Great Promise offices at:

Great Promise for American Indians
Sacred Traditions Summer Camp
3710 Cedar Street, Box #19
Austin, TX 78736

Questions? Send an email to jnotts4@hotmail.com or call Jessica at 202-441-3197.